

Situation	Violation? Yes/No	Justification: Explain why, and list amendment if applicable.
12. Congress passes a law that automatically sentences those arrested for treason to 10 years in prison.	yes	Bill of attainder. Violates Separation of Powers
1. A suspect is arrested for arson and the prosecutor takes the case straight to trial.	YES	5th amendment- not indicted by grand jury.
2. A man on trial for rape will be judged by an all woman jury.	yes	6th amendment- impartial jury
3. A woman is arrested and is being held in the county jail for two weeks without being charged or told why she is being held.	yes	writ of habeas corpus
4. The prosecutor asks the judge for force a defendant to take the stand for questioning, but the judge does not make the defendant testify.	no	5th Amendment-no self incrimination.
5. A man who was arrested and released is told to report to the courthouse for his trial for "doing something illegal."	yes	6th amendment- informed of charges
6. The trial for a famous actress charged with drunk driving takes place in a private courtroom.	yes	6th Amendment- public trial
7. The state finds new evidence that a man, who was found not guilty of murdering his wife, may actually be guilty. They put him on trial again.	yes	5th Amendment- double jeopardy
8. Austin passes a law forbidding cell phone use while driving, and then issues tickets to drivers who used their phones last year.	yes	ex post facto law
9. The key eyewitness of a kidnapping testifies in court, but the defense attorney is not allowed to cross examine the witness.	yes	6th amendment- confront hostile witnesses.
10. A woman arrested for a mass shooting is not permitted to see her attorney due to security issues.	yes	6th Amendment- right to counsel
11. A woman charged with mail fraud sits in jail for 2 years awaiting her trial.	yes	6th amendment- speedy trial